

BENGALURU

Award for Fr. Stan Swamy

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

BENGALURU, JANUARY 25, 2021 01:38 IST

UPDATED: JANUARY 25, 2021 01:38 IST

Human rights activist Father Stan Swamy has been named the recipient of the Mukundan C. Menon Award for 2020. The award was instituted in 2006 by National Confederation of Human Rights Organisations (NCHRO), an NGO, in memory of human rights activist Mukundan C. Menon.

Father Stan Swamy, 83, was arrested on October 8, 2020 in connection to the Bhima Koregaon case. In his absence, Father Joseph S.J., director of Indian Social Institute, Bengaluru, accepted the award, said general secretary of the NCHRO's Karnataka committee Mohammed Farukh in a release.

Circular on vaccination for airport staff withdrawn

Ridership remains at 20-25% despite slash in AC bus fares

Drone cameras to that strayed into a

Printable version | Jan 25, 2021 8:42:21 PM |

<https://www.thehindu.com/news/cities/bangalore/award-for-fr-stan-swamy/article33652620.ece>

© THG PUBLISHING PVT LTD.
